

Excerpt: back cover quotes from the book Golf Scrimmages: Realistic Practice Games Under Pressure by Trent Wearer; © 2006.

“Golf is a competition against oneself, the golf course and the conditions presented. The tools, games and drills in Trent’s book allow a golfer to mimic that same type of competition.”

-- Zach Johnson
PGA Tour Player

“It is rare to find a book that focuses on learning how to score lower without changing your swing, but that is exactly what this book does. The games and drills in this book can help anyone become a better player by creating more fun and effective practice sessions.”

-- Keith Lyford
Golf Magazine Top 100 Teacher and Former PGA Tour Player

“This wonderful book is as complete and interesting as anything I have ever come across. My team will definitely incorporate these games into our practices.”

-- Wally Goodwin
Long-time Stanford Men’s Golf Coach

“I have used Trent's practice games and drills with my golf program for years and the benefits are immeasurable. The competitiveness created by these games and the required focus better prepares every player for tournament golf.”

-- Sammie Chergo
U. of Denver Women’s Head Coach
